EurEau elects Bruno Tisserand as president

Mr Tisserand will focus on protecting water as a natural resource, on raising the profile of the water sector and on cost recovery.

Brussels, 11 May 2015: Members of EurEau's general assembly elected FP2E's Bruno Tisserand as the federation's president at a meeting in the Belgian city of Namur on Friday.

Mr Tisserand's priorities will be on water resource protection, raising the profile of the sector and cost recovery.

Speaking after his election, Mr Tisserand said: "We are in a unique position in Europe as water service operators in many diverse organisations and geographic locations. The strength of EurEau is that we are able to build consensus, which enshrines our credibility and lends weight to our voice."

EurEau also held elections for the Commission chairs. The new chairs are: Arjen Frentz for EU 1 drinking water; Jean-Pierre Silan for EU 2 waste water; and Carl-Emil Larsen for EU 3 economics. The new team will take up office from 01 July 2015.

We also welcomed a new member – the Estonian Water Works Association (EVEL).
