

The role of utilities in meeting global climate goals and sustainable development goals – examples from utilities on energy and resource recovery”

Board Room Session held at IWA Brisbane Wednesday, 12 October 2016, 13.30 – 14.50

Held in: Board Room 1

13.30	Introduction to session and topic: The role of utilities in meeting global climate goals and sustainable development goals: challenges, strategic approach and impact on daily activities. Chair Hans-Martin Friis Møller, CEO Utility of Kalundborg
13.40	Presentation of case BIOFOS, Copenhagen: The road towards CO2 neutrality – energy saving and production in wastewater treatment Jens Prismus, Technical director, BIOFOS
13.50	Q&A and discussion Opinions and input from utility leaders from other countries on Danish solutions and examples of their own experiences
14.10	Presentation of case: Wastewater treatment in a circular economy perspective, reuse of waste and recovery of resource such as struvite and proteins: Ole P. Johnsen, CEO, Billund Water
14.20	Q&A and discussion Opinions and input from utility leaders from other countries on Danish solutions and examples of their own experiences
14.40	Wrap-up and take away messages for further activities: Helle Katrine Andersen, Chair Danish IWA National Committee